

Current Article 5 of HACD Bylaws:

Article 5. VOTING

5.1 Those pilot members who have paid their membership dues at least 30 days prior to the election shall hold voting rights in the Division. Pilot members have the right to vote for Regional Directors, and two Pilot at-large Directors.

5.2 Those Event Official members who have paid their membership dues at least 30 days prior to the election shall hold voting rights in the Division. Event Official members have the right to vote for Regional Directors, and the Event Official at large Director.

5.3 Organizational and corporate membership does not include voting privileges.

5.4 In elections for the Division Board of Directors, members shall vote for candidates within their respective BFA Regions and for at-large members.

5.5 Voting shall be by mail and or electronic ballots on issues and elections determined by the Board of Directors of the Division in accordance with policies and procedures adopted by the Board, and provisions of these bylaws.

5.6 All voting shall be determined by a majority of the eligible members voting, except as otherwise provided by these bylaws.

---

If both proposed amendments pass by a two thirds majority and the amendments are ratified by the BFA Board of Directors, Article 5 would read as follows.

Article 5. VOTING

5.1 Those pilot members who have BFA voting privileges and have also paid their Division membership dues in accordance with the BFA voting requirements, shall hold voting rights in the Division. Pilot members have the right to vote for Regional Directors, and two Pilot at-large Directors.

5.2 Those Event Official members who have BFA voting privileges and have also paid their Division membership dues in accordance with the BFA voting requirements shall hold voting rights in the Division. Event Official members have the right to vote for Regional Directors, two Pilot at-large Directors, and the Event Official at-large Director.

5.3 Organizational and corporate membership does not include voting privileges.

5.4 In elections for the Division Board of Directors, members shall vote for candidates within their respective BFA Regions and for at-large members.

5.5 Voting shall be by mail and or electronic ballots on issues and elections determined by the Board of Directors of the Division in accordance with policies and procedures adopted by the Board, and provisions of these bylaws.

5.6 All voting shall be determined by a majority of the eligible members voting, except as otherwise provided by these bylaws.